

TANG CENTER SERIES IN EARLY CHINA

Meet the Editor

Professor Anthony Barbieri,
University of California, Santa Barbara

March 16, 2024

11:00AM - 12:00PM

Booth 402

Seattle Convention Center

705 Pike Street

Seattle, WA 98101

Come and chat about your ongoing or planned book projects and see if the Tang Center Series in Early China would make a good publication venue for them. Learn about our book proposal and review processes, as well as the many advantages of our groundbreaking series.

Coffee and light refreshments will be served.

Private meetings with the editor outside of the event time are possible upon prior arrangement.

Please email Professor Anthony Barbieri · abarbieri@ucsb.edu · to make an appointment.

ANTHONY BARBIERI is Professor of Early Chinese History at the University of California, Santa Barbara, specializing in the social, legal, economic, and material-culture history of early imperial China. His first book, Artisans in Early Imperial China (2007), was awarded numerous international book prizes. He is also the author of Ancient Egypt and Early China (2021), The Many Lives of the First Emperor of China (2022), and the co-author (with Robin D.S. Yates) of Law, State, and Society in Early Imperial China (2015).

The event is co-sponsored by the Tang Center for Early China and Columbia University Press
